Dated this the 13th day of March, 2007.

JUDGMENT

Petitioner submits that he has all the relevant materials to show that the verification report issued by the police was baseless and that he is a resident of Thiruvananthapuram in the address shown by him.

2. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner in extenso on the merits of the claim of the petitioner for passport and having heard the learned Assistant Solicitor General, it is directed that if the petitioner presents himself with a copy of this judgment and all relevant materials, he will be given an opportunity of personal hearing. The Passport Officer will verify the relevant documents and if he is satisfied, the passport will be duly issued and Ext.P9 would then be recalled.

Writ Petition is disposed of in the above terms.

Thottathil B.Radhakrishnan,
Judge.
